

Deily, Charles R.F.

Bethlehemite Among Navy Trainees At Penn

Charles R. F. Deily, of Bethlehem, is among a number of new students assigned to the University of Pennsylvania under the V-12 program which the Navy has established at various colleges and universities to train officer candidates.

Deily, whose home is at 1738 Madison Avenue, formerly attended Nazareth High School and Moravian College for Men. In the V-12 program he holds the rating of apprentice seaman and is classed as an advanced student.

January 6, 1944