

ROMANO, RALPH

YORKTOWN SURVIVORS WITH GRANDPARENTS—Pictured here are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Romano, of Roseto, as they welcomed their grandsons, Pvt. First Class Ralph Romano, of Roseto, at left and Private William Romano, Marines, who were aboard the carrier Yorktown when she was sunk on June 4. The picture was taken Saturday evening at a welcome home party given at the home of their uncle, Dominick Romano, 1434 Center Street, this city. —Globe-Times photo

YORKTOWN SURVIVORS ARE ENTERTAINED HERE

Oct. 19 1942

Engagement of Private Ralph Romano and Philadelphia Girl Announced.

Two leathernecks, Privates William and Ralph Romano, rescued from a watery grave after the plane carrier Yorktown was sunk on June 4, were entertained by their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Romano, 1434 Center Street, this city.

It was a family gathering at which the engagement of Private Ralph and Miss Agnes McGarry, of Philadelphia, was announced. The date for the wedding has not been set. On Friday evening the Romano boys are to be guests at a party to be given them at the Marconi Social Club in Roseto.

Present at the party on Saturday evening were the grandparents of the boys, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Romano, of Roseto; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Falcone and sons, also of Roseto; Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Romano, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Salvage, Philadelphia; Miss McGarry, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Romano, Roseto; Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Romano and the two Marines.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horning, Lucille Organetti, Mrs. Florence Russell and Sgt. John Wood.

October 19, 1942