

Seaman, William C.

RECEIVES WINGS

Cpl. William C. Seaman is enjoying a two weeks furlough at the home of his parents, Laury Street. He recently graduated from radio and flexible gunnery school at Laredo, Texas, at which time he received his silver wings as an aerial gunner. A reception was held in his honor last evening at the home of his parents. On his return he will go to an air base at Tampa, Fla.

January 27, 1944