

Starts Training In Minecraft

Lt. William Chester Bachman, 29, USNR, 123 West Fourth Street, Bethlehem, Pa., has been assigned to Little Creek, Va., for instruction at the Atlantic Fleet's Minecraft Training Center.

Lt. Bachman recently returned from the European area where he had 12 months' duty aboard a minesweeper. He wears ribbons for the American and the European-African-Middle Eastern Theaters, the latter with one star for the invasion of Normandy.

After receiving his commission in September 1942, he attended Diesel engineering school at State College, Pa. He later was assigned to the subchaser training center at Miami, Fla.

His wife is the former Doris Clewell of Bethlehem. He is the son of Bertram R. Bachman of Bethlehem Route 1. A brother, James, is an ensign in the Navy.

A graduate of the Pennsylvania State College in 1941 with a B. S. degree in metallurgy, Lt. Bachman was employed by the American Steel and Wire Company of Cleveland, O., before he entered the Navy.
