

Tutolo, Daniel John

NAVY MAN ADVANCES

IN THE PACIFIC—Daniel John Tutolo, 18, of 611 Sioux Street, has advanced to seaman, first class, USNR, aboard a destroyer escort.

Tutolo participated in the action at the Ellice Islands, the Gilberts, the Marshalls, Guam, Palau, and Okinawa.

During the Guam operation, his ship was commended by her task group commander for contributing to the success of the campaign.

Tutolo entered the Navy in May, 1943, and received his basic training at Sampson, N. Y.
