RED CROSS

Tips for the cold

By NATE JASTRZEMSKI njastrzemski@tnonline.com

Last week's cold snap reminded us we're in Pennsylvania in January, and the American Red Cross' Lehigh Valley chapter is offering tips for those surprised by the sudden chill.

Communications Specialist Jennifer Loconte said the mild winter so far has yet to demand a serious effort from the Red Cross, but it is ready to act.

She said last week an emergency shelter was opened in Coplay for residents who lost UGI heating gas, but the company provided hotel vouchers and repaired the problem in only a day. "Fortunately nobody needed to stay there," she said of the temporary shelter in borough hall, "but we were ready!

A Red Cross release suggested the following

Before the storm

People should know the difference between a winter storm watch and a warning. A watch is issued when winter storm conditions are possible within the next 36 to 48 hours. During a warning, severe weather conditions have already begun or will begin within 24 hours and people should immediately take precautions.

The Red Cross recommends having the following items on hand in a convenient spot:

At least a three-day supply of water (one gallon per person per day) and non-perishable food

· A flashlight, battery-powered NOAA Weather aid kit

A seven-day supply of medications and medical

There's an app for that

Apple has sold more than 85 million iPhones in the U.S. since 2007. The Apple Store has more than one billion downloads of applications (apps) each month. The types of apps range from educational to just plain silly. South Bethlehem Historical Society members were curious to see if their historical knowledge of South Bethlehem could translate into app downloads.

Three app tours were created by member Karen Samuels to test the waters. A walking tour of the South Bethlehem Greenway offers an audio guide, photos and a written description of 20 stops along the walkway. In this tour she highlights history, art, businesses and gardens.

All the stops are linked to the GPS coordinates of the site. With this iPhone app, you cannot get lost and you will know how far you have walked.

In the Churches of South Bethlehem tour you are offered photos and historical descriptions of 18 beautiful South Bethlehem churches. Some of the smaller churches are tucked away in the neighborhood and easy to miss. The GPS coordinates bring you right to the front doors.

After trying these tours, you will want to look at the last tour, Lunch in South Bethlehem. You can check out 23 South

'Get the message and do the jobs'

By DANA GRUBB Special to the Bethlehem Press

JANUARY 30, 2013

The Bethlehem Branch of the NAACP and Bethlehem YWCA once again co-sponsored the annual Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. celebration held each year at the Cathedral Church of the Nativity with more than 100 attendees breaking bread, praying, singing, remembering and expressing hope together Jan. 21.

Speakers Dr. Ernest Smith, a retired pediatric cardiologist, and Marques Grundy, the first African American appointed to the Northampton County Election Commission, wove their messages around the commitment of Dr. King, his "Dream," and the actions needed today to fulfill that "There is still work to do," said Smith, who talked about his experiences during the Civil Rights Movement of the 1960's.

Using his own life path as an example, Johnson told those assembled, "I stand before you now to tell you that the impossible is possible," and he urged people to register and use the power of the vote.

Esther Lee, president of the Bethlehem Branch of the NAACP, reminded listeners that actions taken to honor the efforts and dreams of Dr. King should not be reserved for the single day on which King is honored.

"Do it every day," she said, "we need to know when and where to do

FOOTBALL Truby named new LHS coach

By PETER CAR pcar@tnonline.com

John Truby celebrated his 30th birthday on Monday and he couldn't have gotten a better present than what the Bethlehem Area School District gave him at their monthly board meeting that night.

Truby approved to become the next head football coach at Liberty, ending a month of speculation about one of the hottest vacancies the Lehigh Valley Conference has to offer.

"If this is what your 30s have to offer, I can't wait to turn 31," said Truby. "It's a humbling experience and an honor to be the next head coach at Liberty. I'm really excited to start working with the kids."

Truby spent four vears coaching at Nitschmann's middle school program, including one as head coach, followed by leading the Liberty freshman program two years ago, along with being Dieruff's offensive line coach last season.

The 2001 Freedom graduate was an offensive lineman during his playing days for the Patriots, as well as in college at Kutztown before he transferred to Shippens-

Truby was one of seven candidates interviewed for the job and apparently made the most of his impression during his only interview during mid-January. There is no better match for talented, hard working kids than a highly motivated coach," said Liberty principal Harrison Bailey III from a press release Monday night. "John Truby is the man for that job."

Now that Truby is the man for Liberty, he'll have to resurrect a program that went 3-7 last season under former head coach Dave Brown.

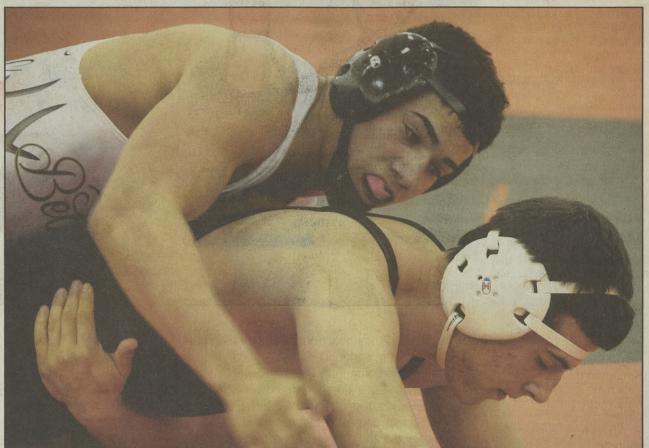

The Hurricanes won three out of their last four games last season, including a season-ending 41-14 romp over Freedom.

Truby understands that he may be viewed as inexperienced from an outsiders perspective, but is up to the challenge.

His top priority is filling a coaching staff in the coming weeks to help mold a team See Truby on Page A8

BOYS BASKETBALL Liberty defeats Council Rock N.

By PETER CAR pcar@tnonline.com

It was a good start to the day for Bethlehem at the Lehigh Valley Hoop Group Showcase at Parkland on Sunday, but the tournament ended with a loss to another Bethlehem school.

Liberty kicked things off Sunday afternoon with a 54-46 victory over Council Rock North, getting a small dose of revenge on their District One counterparts, after the Indians eliminated Liberty from the second round of the state playoffs two years gaining their second straight nonleague victory over a high-caliber opponent.

For head coach Chad Landis, it wasn't much about revenge, but rather

'It's a real good win for us to get another nonleague game like this,' said Landis. "We're on a four-game win streak now and we'd like to get back to playing like we did earlier in the season. Hope this is a spring board for Freedom's boys swim team scored another victory last week with a 64-37 win over Easton.

"We're one of the least deep teams, but to have the record we have and do what we do is really amazing," said Freedom's Peter Conzola.

The Patriot boys have only two losses to swimming powerhouses Parkland and Emmaus.

In Freedom's meet against Easton, Scott Del-Franco, Eric Lawrence, Conzola, and Connor Harrigan began with a first place finish in the 200 medley relay in 1:47.30.

"I like to go second or third because it puts me in a position where I can focus on doing what I have to do. I don't really like to be in a position to have to put us in the lead or win the race," Conzola

In individual events, Conzola won the 200 free in 1:51.80, and Sam Magnan won the 200 IM in 2:09.61

DelFranco placed first in two events, the 50 free in 23.34 and 100 backstroke in 53.65 (pool record), and Harrigan was also a double event winner with the 100 free in 53.46 and the 500 free in 5:02.41.

Andrew Umstead won the diving event for the Patriots with 117.10 points.

Conzola, Magnan, Kyle Hanchick, and DelFranco also won the 200 free relay in 1:37.42, and Lawrence, Harrigan, Magnan, and Conzola combined to win the 400 free relay in 3:33.97.

Although the Hurricanes were ten points ahead, halfway through their swim meet against Nazareth, Liberty knew the Blue Eagles could not be taken lightly.

In addition, Liberty swim coach Reik Foust, and diving coach, Jeff Zettlemoyer, make it a practice to not cash in on diving points when the other team, in this case, Nazareth, has no divers. On top of that, the meet would be scored as a sixlane rather than an eightlane meet.

"We have a ten-point lead now, but that could disappear like that," said Liberty captain, Matt Buell. "I'm most concerned about the relays because that's where you get the most points.

In the end, the Hurricanes prevailed, 92-78, winning only the 200 medley relay when Sean Vanatta, Nolan Vanatta, Buell, and Brandon Merk-

Buell's time was 26.1 in the butterfly, the third leg of the relay.

Freedom's girls swimming team was defeated by Easton, 56-46, last week, but not without a fight.

The Red Rovers opened the meet with a victory in the 200 medley relay, and the Patriots placed second. Easton also won the 200 free relay with Freedom close behind, but in the third and final relay, Shannon Howell,

WRESTLING look to make finals

By PETER CAR pcar@tnonline.com

Just the talk of having Liberty reach this weekend's District 11 3A wrestling finals is something that excites head coach Jody Karam.

But at the end of the day, talk is talk and the Hurricanes will have to walk the walk if they want to be the first team in Karam's 20 years to reach the final mat Satur-

Liberty will take that plunge this weekend when district duals kick off at Freedom on Friday and Saturday.

The goals for Karam's bunch is to make a splash, but how big of a jump the 'Canes can actually make is yet to be

"Seeding is done by the committee and you trust that they'll put you in the right spot," Karam said. "You deserve what you earn and we're happy to be back at districts.'

Easton (12-1) leads the District 11 3A power points at the moment, followed by Stroudsburg (13-1) and Parkland (11-2). Liberty (13-4, 6-2) enters the fray in fourth.

Pocono Mountain East (15-2), Emmaus (13-6), Pleasant Valley (14-7), Nazareth (12-5), Blue Mountain (12-6) and Northampton (6-6) round out the top 10 teams in the power points.

How that will unfold once Thursday's seeding meeting gets under way is a different story.

Liberty should find themselves with a top-Although the Blue four seed, but could also Eagles outswam the Hurcrack the top three if Stroudsburg gets bumped.

The prevailing favorite finals match is an Easton-Parkland rematch from last year's district final, which saw the Rovers topple the Trojans 38-20.

Liberty was seeded seventh last year and lost to Parkland in the quarterfinals by a 36-21 account.

Whether they grab a third or fourth seed this weekend, they'll still have to run into Easton or Parkland, the respective one and two seeds, in the semifinals.

The 'Canes already lost to Easton this season 44-21 and have not wrestled Parkland.

'Parkland would not be a favorable matchup for us," said Karam," but I know better than to look past our opening round cidentally the same match. We've been to the semifinals before as a program, but we would really like to make that jump to the finals. the obvious storylines that

"I'm not sure how likely that is this year, but that is our long term goal. I think if we could get out to states, we could win a couple matches out there.

Freedom's chance at qualifying for duals may have seen the end of the road following last weekend's 44-17 loss to Liberty.

The Patriots would have needed that win to help boost their status.

The Pates take on Bethlehem Catholic tonight, where an unlikely upset doesn't seem feasible.

All times for 3A wrestling will mirror the 2A action, except that semifinals take place on Saturday at 1 p.m. instead of 11 a.m.

Both finals will take place at 6 p.m. at Freedom Saturday evening.

Landis hopes that's how it stays as they head down the home stretch with games against Easton, Nazareth and Freedom next week

"There's still a lot of games that can decide what's going to happen down the stretch," Landis said. "With DeShawn out this week, it's not ideal, but I think we've found ourselves again after going through the slump we had.'

Freedom closed out the Hoop Group Showcase on Sunday night with a 53-46 loss to one of New Jersey's top-five rated teams in Hudson Catholic.

David Williams led the Patriots in scoring with 16 points, but the inability to get Nyreef Jackson (10 points) and Derike Chiclana (8 points) going throughout the contest had the Patriots playing catch up throughout.

One thing was evident in the eyes of Bethlehem Catholic boys basketball head coach Michael Frew from the beginning of last week's game against Emmaus - the Hornets wanted it just that much

The Hornets (9-8 overall; 7-3 in LVC) jumped out to a 21-12 lead after the first quarter, and were never severely threatened from that point on en route to their 66-52 victory over the Hawks (8-9 overall; 2-8 in LVC) last Thursday night.

"To win games in this league you got to be tougher than the other team," said Frew. "And I felt that Emmaus wanted it more than we did tonight. By the look in their eyes [and] the way they pushed us, battled us, and physically manhandled us at times, they seemed to want it more than we did for longer." "It was evident from

The State Department of Revenue has made a decision to delay for one year the implementation of the new Small Games of Chance reporting

A small family-owned business opened its doors recently on Stefko Boulevard. Stefko Cash4Gold at 1461 Stefko Boulevard is owned by retired Middlesex County, New Jersey corrections officer Jose Arbelo and his son-in-law Edwin Feijoo, who has been buying and selling jewelry and precious metals for 20 years. Arbelo, a Bethlehem Township resident, says his son-in-law convinced him to partner in the Bethlehem venture. Feijoo already has two similar business operations in the Perth Amboy area of New Jersey. Speaking in their security-laden store, Feijoo, a former Bethlehem resident, said they deal in precious metals, coins, jewelry, watches, diamonds and scrap gold. He also does his own refining. Both noted their shop's proximity to the Sands Casino and high traffic volume on Stefko Boulevard as deciding factors for choosing their location. "We're family owned and operated with 20 years experience," said Arbelo, "and I'm sure we're competitive. We'll pay top dollar for scrap and precious metals." Stefko Cash4Gold is open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Sundays by appointment only. Do you know what God says in the Bible about unborn babies and abortion?

God acknowledges the personhood of unborn babies from the time of their conception! God told the prophet Jeremiah, "Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet" (Jeremiah 1:5). David proclaimed, "Thou hast covered me In my mother's womb...My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret.

mother's womb...My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret... and in thy book all my members were written" (Psalm 139:13-16). Every child—born or unborn—belongs to God, "Children are an heritage of the LORD" (Psalm 127:3). Jesus said, "It is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish" (Matthew 18:14).

God's wrath is upon those who abort innocent unborn babies! Psalm 106:40 states, "Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled." Why? Because they had "shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters" (v. 38). Since the Supreme Court's horrendous 1973 Roe vs Wade decision, over 54 million innocent unborn babies have been murdered in clear violation of the sixth commandment, "Thou shalt not kill" (Exodus 20:13). Will God forgive those who are guilty of killing the unborn? Yes, if they confess their sin of murder to God and repent as King David did in Psalm 51:14, "Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation." God's mercy and forgiveness is only available through the sacrifice of His Son, Jesus. Allentown Symphony Orchestra concerts painting from a palette of romantic music

An orchestra is an amazing ensemble composed of so many wonderful instruments. When put together, the sounds that they produce can be absolutely stunning.

French composer Maurice Ravel was a master at creating new sounds for the orchestra. In his ballet "Daphnis and Chloe," he uses a very large orchestra and writes in such a way that the music just cascades around us. He even uses a large chorus as an instrumental sound, where all the members of the chorus sing on the syllable "Ah" and the voices meld into the orchestra, creating yet another color for our ears to enjoy.

Ravel's style of writing was so successful and engaging that many composers orchestration. An example that comes immediately to my mind is the music that was written for the television show "Fantasy Island." Does 'Zero' add up to reality?

"Zero Dark Thirty," an Oscar picrtue nominee and an American Film Institute movie of the year, is an intense cinema-going experience.

"Zero Dark Thirty" is nothing less than an "Zero Dark Thirty" has to account of the decade-long do with the CIA and other hunt for al-Qaeda terrorist leader Osama bin Laden following the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center and The Pentagon and bin Laden's killing by United States Navy S.E.A.L. Team 6 in May 2011.

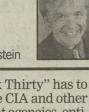

Kathryn Director Bigelow apparently had access to classified information. That access, in itself, has caused controversy to swirl around "Zero Dark Thirty," one of those feature movies that has leaped from the media's movie review pages to the front pages to Congress.

One of the more damaging allegations against Bigelow is that her access to classified United States' government information about the mission and the film's representation of what is euphemistically called "enhanced interrogation techniques" in helping to obtain crucial information from captured terrorists has compromised her objectivity as a film-

While you and I may never know all of the facts behind the mission of "Zero Dark Thirty," with the title referring to the military term for 12:30 a.m., believed to be the start of the Team 6 raid, Bigelow has directed an extraordinary piece of cinema, which is not unlike that of a documentary in its depiction of what seems to be an insider's view of the "trade craft" during an important chapter in American history.

The first hour of "Zero Dark Thirty" is torture, literally and figuratively. The movie-goer is taken to several "Black Sites" in the Middle East and Eastern Europe. While the torture scenes are not as graphic as, say, that of a horror film, they are horrific in their detail and may make you squirm in your seat. There's almost a sense of "The Silence of the nes Lambs" to some of the do with the CIA and other government agencies, entities and officials, including those in the administrations of President Barack Obama and former President George W. Bush (with, for example, James Gandolfini portraying an unnamed CIA director) and their handling of the hunt for Bin Laden. This is TV's "West Wing" taken to new depths and heights, except it purports to be reality.

The final portion of "Zero Dark Thirty" depicts the tracking of couriers, the locating of the Bin Laden fortress in Abbottabad, Pakistan, and the raid, capture and killing there of Bin Laden. These scenes are very dark and green in color, filmed as though seen through the night-vision equipment the soldiers are wearing. The sense here is that of the "Mortal Kombat" video

While one can't vouch for the factual accuracy, "Zero Dark Thirty" has the sense of authenticity. Bigelow (Oscar picture and director recipient, "The Hurt Locker"), directing from the Oscar nominated original screenplay by Mark Boal (Oscar screenplay recipient, "The Hurt Locker"), is a very capable film-maker — with "Zero Dark Thirty" also an Oscar editing and sound-editing nominee and leaves no question in the viewer's mind that the mission to get Bin Laden was necessary. "Zero Dark Thirty" makes a James Bond movie look like 'Mary Poppins.'

There are many believable performances by the not well-known cast. Jessica Chastain, who is wellknown, is a deserved Oscar actress nominee in her portrayal of Maya, a ĈIA agent. Her performance is at the center of the film. We feel her passion, her pain - and her extreme nerdi-

SIRS: PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, that upon the annexed petition of Alexander Levin, verified on the 16th day of August, 2012, and upon all the papers and proceedings heretofore had herein, an application will be made to an IAS Part of this court, to be held at the courthouse thereof, located at the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of Nassau, 100 Supreme Court Drive, Mineola, New York, 11501 on the 22nd day of February, 2013, at 9:30 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, for an order changing the name of NATASHA ALEXAN-DRA JUSINO to NATASHA ALEXANDRA LEVIN, and for such other and further relief in favor of petitioner as may be just, proper, and equitable, together with the costs and disbursements of this proceeding. PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE, that an answer and supporting affidavits, if any shall be served at least two days before the return date of the motion. Dated: Great Neck, NY, January 3, 2013. Yours, etc., Wisselman, Harounian & Associates, P.C. By: /S/ Derrick Rubin, Esq., Attorneys for Petitioner, 1010 Northern Blvd., Ste. 300, Great Neck, NY 11021. 516-773-8300 TO THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, COUNTY OF NASSAU:

The petition of ALEXANDER LEVIN, respectfully shows to this court: 1. I am the parent and sole custodian of Natasha Alexandra Jusino. The petitioner's name is Alexander Levin. I reside at 19 Amherst Road, Great Neck, NY 11021. 2. The minor's present name is Natasha Alexandra Jusino. The minor resides at 19 Amherst Road, Great Neck, NY 11021. The minor is single, not previously married and has no children. 3. Petitioner obtained custody of the minor when an Order of Custody on Default, dated February 16, 2011, was signed by Hon. Myrna Martinez-Perez of the Family Court of the State of New York, County of Bronx, under File No. 76716, Docket #: V-19276-07. A copy of the Order is annexed hereto as Exhibit "A". 4. Natalia Jusino, the mother of the child resides at 712 4th Street, Floor 3, Bethlehem, PA18015. 4. The name I proposed that the Minor will assume in place and stead of the Minor's present is Natasha Alexandra Levin. 5. The minor's age, date of birth and place of birth are: age 6, date of birth: June 14, 2006; and place of birth: Bronx County, New York. A certified copy of the Birth Certificate is attached. If the Minor was born the State of New York, you must attach either: a) a Birth Certificate; b) Certified Transcript of such Birth Certificate; or c) a Certificate from the Commissioner or the local Board of Health that no such Certificate is availa-

6. The minor's present address is 19 Amherst Road, Great Neck, NY 11021. For each of the following statements, place your initial in the appropriate column: a) The Minor's personal safety would be personally jeopardized by the disclosure of this name change b) The Minor has been convicted of a crime c) The Minor has been adjudicated a bankrupt

d) There are judgments or liens of record against the Minor e) There is/are legal actions or proceeding pending to which the Minor is a party If you responded "YES" to any of the five statements above, please explain:

8. I have not made a previous application to change the Minor's name in this or any other Court.
9. The reasons for this applications are as follows: The minor child will soon be enrolling in first grade at Saddle Rock public school and with the father having sole legal and physical custody of the minor child since February 16, 2011. The minor child's name, being different from the petitioner's last name makes it both confusing to the school district and the teacher in properly identifying the child with the parent. Also my daughter, having a last name other than my last name causes concerns, issues and delays at international borders. WHEREFORE, petitioner respectfully prays for an order granting this change of name to Natasha Alexandra Levin

Dated: August 16, 2012. /S/ ALEXANDER LEVIN Petitioner. Wisselman, Harounian & Associates, PC By Derrick Rubin, Esq. 1010 Northern Blvd., Suite 300, Great Neck, NY 11021 516-773-8300
