

Makos, Frank

Frank Makos, S 1-c, In Navy Two Years

Today marks the second anniversary of Frank Makos, S/1, in the United States Navy. For the past nine months he has been serving in the South Pacific theater of war and participated at Iwo Jima and Okinawa. Previously he had served in the Atlantic theater of operations.

is a former Bethlehem Steel Company employe, and his wife and two children, Theresa Carmen, 19 months old, and Frank, Jr., six months old, reside at 901 Spencer Road, Bethlehem. His wife is the former Theresa Gonzalez.

Seaman Makos received his boot training at Sampson and his advanced training at Norfolk.

June 22, 1945