Cook, Marin G., Austin

Marvin G. Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Cook, 144 Madison Street, Freemansburg, has been promoted to Sergeant, according to a letter received by his parents from Germany. Inducted December 26, 1942, he received training in camps in the States before being shipped to England. Sgt. Cook took part in the D-Day invasion and in the fighting for France, Belgium and now Germany.

Before his induction he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. A brother, Pvt. Austin Cook, is serving with the Infantry in Italy.

October 28, 1944