

Carcione, Anthony J.

WINS HIS WINGS—Lieutenant H. L. Dunbar, 1510 Washington Boulevard, Easton, one of the class of 42-E fighter-fliers to receive war wings at seven different pilot schools yesterday, preparatory to streaming forth to every continent under the sun. Dunbar is among 43 Pennsylvanians, flying officers and staff sergeants, who now wear new wings. Other Lehigh Valley youths who also finished with this class include Staff Sergeant John J. Hrkach, of Bethlehem R. D. 4, who finished at Ellington Field; Lieut. Anthony J. Carcione, of 1917 Huntington Avenue, Bethlehem; Lieut. Lucius H. McHose, of 557 Howertown Road, Catasauqua.

May 21, 1942