

Batley, John

Brother and Sister Serving

The smiling face under the Army cap is that of Corp. John Batley, who only a few days ago got his chevrons to indicate his new grade and authority. He's somewhere in California. The other face is that of Aux. Agnes Talnak, WAAC, his sister, who is stationed at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. A third member of the family is Aux. Talnak's husband, Pfc. George Talnak, who is at present in Indiana. Between them they are making a mighty big contribution to their country's war effort.

Aux. Talnak and Corp. Batley are son and daughter of Mrs. Geza Batley, Bethlehem R. D. 4, and Pfc. Talnak the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Talnak, Wood Street, Bethlehem. News of Aux. Talnak was recently received by Mrs. John Berish, Bethlehem R. D. 4, to whom the WAAC wrote that she is "enjoying Army life."

May 17, 1943