

Nelson, Darwin

Bethlehem Soldier
In Choir In England 1943

HEADQUARTERS, EUROPEAN THEATER OF OPERATIONS.— Corporal Darwin Nelson, of Bethlehem, Pa., is a member of a newly-formed church choir at an infantry station in England. The choir is made up of United States soldiers and British Auxiliary Territorial Service girls, the equivalent of American WAC's.

The choir was organized by the chaplain of the outfit and sings every Sunday at a village church where the troops worship with the villagers. Many country churches in the camp area have invited the choir to sing at services.
