

Judd, William E

Seabee Promoted

Word has been received recently from William E. Judd, seaman second class, that he is now stationed in the Southwest Pacific. Seaman Judd was promoted and is a member of the Seabees, having enlisted on January 28 of this year. He received his basic training at Camp Perry, Williamsburg, Va. From there he was transferred to Hueneme, Calif. After two months of training there he was sent to his present station in the Southwest Pacific.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Judd of 1019 Spring Street, Bethlehem. Before enlisting in the service he was employed in the HDT shop, Bethlehem Steel Company.
