

Johnson, Charles W.

Teacher's Engagement Revealed at Tea

JUL 19 1943

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney J. Johnson, 42 West Laurel Street, entertained at a tea at their home Sunday in honor of Miss Sally Ann Geissinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson D. Seyfried, 234 East Goepp Street, whose engagement to their son, Corp. Charles W. Johnson, was announced recently.

About 30 guests were present. Mrs. Paul Shelling poured at an attractively appointed tea table, the centerpiece of which was vases of red roses in a wrought-iron bracket.

Miss Geissinger is a graduate of Liberty High School. She secured her bachelor's degree from Wilson College and her master's from Lehigh University and is now a teacher of English at Liberty High School.

Corp. Johnson was graduated from Liberty High School and Coyne Electrical School, Chicago, Ill., and attended Bethlehem Business College. He is with the Army Air Corps, stationed at the Walker Army Air Field, Victoria, Kan.
