

Long, Melvin R.

Three Globe-Times
Employees To Enter
Army, Marines, Navy

DEC 1 1943

Melvin R. Long, Mohican Street, staff photographer at The Globe-Times, was accepted for service in the U. S. Army yesterday at the Allentown induction center.

Long, married and father of a daughter, is the third Globe-Times employe to be accepted for induction in December. Ralph Stahlnecker, of the editorial staff, leaves Monday for service with the Marines, and Charles Marcks, an employe in the composing room, leaves next week to enter the Navy.
