

Guss, Virginia

WAVE IS FETED

Virginia Guss, daughter of Northampton County superintendent of highways, and Mrs. Hale A. Guss, 519 East Twentieth Street, Northampton, who left Thursday for Hunter College, N. Y., and duty in the WAVES, was feted by a number of acquaintances Tuesday night in their home.

OCT 8 1943
The new WAVE was presented with an overnight bag and fountain pen. Guests in attendance included Marguerite Fedorak, Ann Masluk, Janice McCarty, Grace Biery, Mary Fedor, Alfreda Zimmerman, Ethel Prutzanni, Kitty Molesky. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Guss, who was hostess to the group of well-wishers.

October 8, 1943