

Sabo, George

Earns Boots, Wings

FEB 17 1945
FORT BENNING, Ga. — Pfc. George Sabo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sabo, 1538 East Second Street, Bethlehem, Pa., has won the right to wear the "Boots and Wings" of the United States Army Paratroops, at this camp. He has completed four weeks of jump training during which time he made five jumps, the last a tactical jump at night involving a combat problem on landing.

Jumping at the Parachute School has been steadily developed to a recognized war science. American paratroopers have been recognized throughout the world for their meritorious actions against the enemy.
