Medic Advance

Betty Beahm, daughter of Mrs. Caroline Beahm, 1144 Minsi Trail St., recently received her Corporal's stripes after serving two years in the Army Medical Corps.

Cpl. Beahm earned her promotion at Camp Upton, Long Island. She enlisted in September, 1944, and received her basic training at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., and at Halloran General Hospital before going to her present station.

The Corporal's brother, William, S2/C, was discharged December 14, 1945, after serving 2½ years.
