

Graver, Evelyn

TRIO OF BATH WAACS INDUCTED SATURDAY

NOV 2 1942

Bertha and Margaret Moser, Evelyn Graver Leave for Des Moines.

A trio of Bath WAACS was inducted into the U. S. Army Saturday at the Philadelphia induction center. They are Bertha and Margaret Moser and Evelyn Graver. The young women expect to arrive in Des Moines, Iowa, today.

The Misses Moser are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Moser, Northampton Street, Bath. Bertha, a graduate of Bethlehem High School, served in a secretarial capacity in the main office of the Pennsylvania Dixie Cement Corporation, Bethlehem.

Her sister, Margaret, also a Bethlehem High graduate, was in the employ of Stanley J. Fehr, Nazareth lawyer, for a number of years.

Evelyn Graver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Graver, Walnut Street, also a graduate of Bethlehem High School, was in the employ of the Keystone Cement Company in a secretarial position, Bath, for several years.

The girls were active members in the organizations of Christ Church, Bath, and a number of civic groups, serving in a volunteer capacity in rationing and draft boards and were members of the Red Cross first aiders. They were members of the Nazareth Young Woman's Club.
