Rev. Israel Yost Wins Captaincy In Fifth Army

After serving one year in the U. S. Army as a chaplain, the Rev. Israel A. S. Yost sent word home from Italy to his wife, the former Miss Peggy Landon, of Nazareth, and his mother, Mrs. Arthur Sterner, of Bethlehem R. D. 1, of his promotion to captain.

Captain Yost was the former pastor of the Hecktown-Farmersville parish of the Lutheran Church and entered the army in February, 1943.

He attended the chaplains' school at Harvard University where he received his commission as first lieutenant and was then sent to Camp Davis, N. C. He sailed for overseas duty in September, 1943, and at the present time is a member of the Fifth Army in Italy.
