

Coyle, James

GETS CORPORAL'S CHEVRONS.

James Coyle, son of Mrs. Emma Coyle, of Fifth Street, city, has been promoted to the rating of corporal by the U. S. Army, according to information received by his family. Corp. Coyle, who entered the service under the Selective Service Act on April 22 of this year, is 34. He resided with his brother, George, at 217 Northampton Avenue, this city. His former employment was with the Sun Shipbuilding Company at Chester. The young soldier is at present stationed at Camp Beauregard, La., with a military police unit.

July 9, 1942