

Donchez, Anthony G.

PROMOTED OVERSEAS

AT A U. S. ARMY BASE OVERSEAS (Special to The Globe-Times).—Anthony G. Donchez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Donchez, of 118 Graham Court, Bethlehem, has recently been promoted to corporal at this overseas base, his commanding officer has announced. Corp. Donchez recently completed a year's service overseas. He arrived here April 15, 1942.

Entering the Army in October, 1941, Corp. Donchez received his basic training in the Coast Artillery Corps at Ft. Eustis, Va., and was at Ft. Slocum and Ft. Hamilton, N. Y., before being sent overseas.

A graduate of Bethlehem High School, Corp. Donchez attended Moravian College, where he was editor-in-chief of the weekly school publication, charter member of the German Club and a member of Omicron Gamma Omega social fraternity. He also played on the tennis and basketball teams.

Prior to his induction in the Army, Corp. Donchez was employed as an inspector of ordnance materials at the Bethlehem Steel Company, and also worked in New York City as a musician.

At this post Corp. Donchez is bass-violist of the post orchestra and drum major of the post band. He has a brother, Lt. (j.g.) Steve Donchez, serving with the U. S. Navy at Pearl Harbor.
