

Heil, Henry

Henry Heil Promoted To T/5 in Okinawa

OKINAWA—Henry Heil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Heil, 208 Crest Ave., has recently been promoted to the grade of technician fifth grade while serving with the Headquarters, 62nd General Depot, on Okinawa.

Prior to entering the service, Cpl. Heil was a coal tar chemist aide with the Allied Chemical & Dye Corporation.

He is now working in the military personnel section of the 62nd Gen. Depot helping in redeploying men to the United States.

He has a brother, Robert, who was recently discharged from the Navy after long and meritorious service.

Cpl. Heil is eligible to wear the American Theater Ribbon, the Good Conduct Ribbon, the Asiatic-Pacific Theater Ribbon and the World War II Victory Ribbon.

January 19, 1946