

Martucci, Joseph E.
Carmon A.

OFF TO TRAIN WITH NAVY

Joseph E. and Carmon A. Martucci, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martucci, 1401 Jeter ave., Fountain Hill, left this morning by rail for the naval training center at Sampson, N. Y. They were part of a large contingent enroute to that place.

MAR 20 1943
Both attended Fountain Hill schools and were part of an adagio dance team known as The Aces. Before entering the service Joseph, 21, was employed as a crane man in the Press Forge of No. 2 shop, Bethlehem Steel, while Carmon A., was in the Foundry department.

Thursday evening the parents entertained for the lads at a party in Italian Hall. About 100 guests, relatives and friends, attended, among them Pvt. Anthony Grello, an uncle, home on furlough from Camp Hood, Texas. The two young men received many appropriate gifts and in turn presented their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Mary C. Grello, 72, with corsages.

March 20, 1943