

Chernaskey, Paul

Wins Advancement

His specialized training in the school for electrician's mates at the U. S. Naval Training base, Sampson, N. Y., Paul Chernaskey (above), son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Chernaskey, 1600 East Ninth Street, is rated as a petty officer third class, electrician's mate third class. The young naval man is home at present on delayed orders. He expects to report shortly for further training in aviation electrical technique. Chernaskey reported February 23 at Sampson for his "boot" training. He was graduated September 6 from service school. Before enlisting in the Navy he attended Bethlehem Technical High School.

September 9, 1943