Quakertown WAC Completes Training

NACOGDOCHES, Tex.—Pvt. Antoinette Galli, Quakertown, Pa., was graduated recently from WAC Branch No. 1, Army Administration School, at Stephen F. Austin State College, Nacogdoches, according to an announcement released from the Public Relations Office of that school. This school is one of the Army Administration Schools functioning under the command of General Brehon B. Somervell, Commanding General, Army Service Forces. Pvt. Galli successfully completed a course of eight weeks instruction in Army Administration. Her new assignment is one which prior to the inception of the WAC would have been given to an enlisted man.
