

Alexy, William George

English Girl
Is Bride of
Sgt. W. G. Alexy

MAY 23 1944
St. John's Church, Pembroke, England, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, March 29, when Miss Hilda Elizabeth Eaton, of the Imperial Censorship, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Eaton, of Liverpool, England, became the bride of Technical Sergeant William George Alexy, U. S. Army, younger son of Mrs. and the late J. Alexy, Cementon, Pa.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Eoin E. Stewart, of the Imperial Censorship, presented a charming picture in her gown of white silk, trimmed with lace, and cut with a sweetheart neckline. Her tulle veil was suspended from her headdress with a wreath of orange blossoms. Her wedding bouquet was a sheath of Easter lilies.

The bridesmaid was Miss Peggy Crowe, of the Imperial Censorship. She carried a bouquet of mixed sweet peas, and was attired in a dress of pale green marquisette, also cut with a sweetheart neckline.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Bruce Peake. Staff Sergeant Andrew Lengyel, U. S. Army, was the bridegroom's best man.

After the wedding a reception followed at "Gladwyn" on King Street, where about fifty guests were in attendance. The couple expect to come to this country in the near future, when Mrs. Alexy will make her home here.

May 23, 1944