

Masteller, Royce

ENSIGN MASTELLER AND BRIDE ON VISIT HERE

DEC 29 1942

Ensign Royce Masteller, who is completing a course of training at Cornell University, and his recent bride, the former Miss Katherine Zimmerman, a teacher in the public schools of Nuremberg, near Hazleton, spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Masteller and family, 647 Washington Avenue.

Ensign Masteller will complete his course January 8 after which he will receive an assignment to some post not yet revealed. He entered the U. S. Naval Reserve May 15 and was immediately sent to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, where he completed his preliminary training September 8, then being sent to Cornell. Prior to entering the service he was a member of the teaching staff at Nitschmann Junior High School, he being the first local teacher to join the armed forces.

December 29, 1942