Irene Lambert Bride of Flyer In Texas Camp

JUL 8 1944

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Clauser, of 635 Itaska Street, announce the marriage of Mrs. Clauser's daughter, Miss Irene Lambert, and Lieut. Luther Eisenhart, U. S. Army Air Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eisenhart, of 615 Cherokee Street. The wedding took place June 24 in the chapel at Ellington Field, Tex., with Capt. William Brown, Army chaplain, officiating.

The couple were attended by Mrs. Orville J. Stephens, of Allentown, and Lieut. Louis Genero, of New York City. Lieut. Sharon Ellibash sang before the ceremony. A wedding dinner was served in Houston, Tex.

The bride is a graduate of Liberty High School and Moravian College for Women. She is a member of Phi Mu Epsilon sorority; Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary journalistic fraternity; was president of student government in her senior year; and was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The bridegroom was graduated from Liberty High also, and attended Lehigh University before entering the Air Corps. He was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. He trained at Greensboro, N. C., Cincinnati University and Ellington Field. He received his wings and commission as second lieutenant July 1.

Lieut. and Mrs. Eisenhart are in Bethlehem visiting their parents while Lieut. Eisenhart is on leave. They will leave for Tampa, Fla., where the bridegroom will be stationed, on July 18.
