

Freudenberger, Nancy C.

S Sgt. Nancy Freudenberger
Engaged To Wed
Pfc. James Van Wyck

JAN 16 1945
Mr. and Mrs. John M. Freudenberger, of 1913 Arlington Street, announce the engagement of their daughter, S. Sgt. Nancy Carol Freudenberger, U. S. Marine Corps Women's Reserve, to Pfc. James Thomas Van Wyck, U. S. Marine Corps, of Buffalo, N. Y., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Van Wyck, of Kenmore, N. Y.

S. Sgt. Freudenberger was graduated from Liberty High School and attended Bethlehem Business College. Before enlisting in the Marines on June 17, 1943, she was employed as medical secretary by Allentown State Hospital. She is attached to Headquarters, USMC, Arlington, Va.

Pfc. Van Wyck is a graduate of Buffalo High School and was attending the University of Buffalo when he enlisted in the Marines on Dec. 10, 1941, three days after Pearl Harbor. He was with the Fifth Marines on Guadalcanal, Cape Gloucester and Tulagi, and at present is stationed at Camp Richie, Md.

January 16, 1945