

Kotich, George A.

WILL BE PETTY OFFICER

8-28-1942
George Anthony Kotich, This City,
Called to Active Duty.

A petty officer, second class, in the United States Navy will be George Anthony Kotich, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kotich, 521 East Morton Street, when he reports on September 2 for duty at Camp Allen, Norfolk, Va.

Father of an eight-month-old daughter, Georgene, Kotich enlisted on July 14 in the Naval Reserve. He received his call to duty on August 13. A former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company, in the construction department, he will become a ship fitter, second class in the Navy.

Kotich attended Broughal High and took blue print reading and other subjects in the Pennsylvania State College Extension School. He is married to Anna Pardo, an Egypt girl, and is a member of St. Joseph's Windish Catholic Church.
