Joyce Klinger Becomes Bride Of Cpl. Adams

JUL 29 1944
The marriage of Miss Joyce Elaine Klinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Klinger, 1013 Wood Street, and Cpl. William Edward Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Adams, of Bethlehem R. D. 1, took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon in St. Matthew's Lutheran Church. The Rev. William Berkemeyer officiated.

Mr. Klinger gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white faille and lace, fingertip veil of tulle falling from a coronet of crystal flowers, and carried white gladioli and larkspur.

Mrs. James Mayor, her matron of honor, wore aqua taffeta and matching net bonnet; while Miss Betty Diehl, maid of honor, was similarly gowned. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Franklin Gaugler and Miss Mildred Adams, sisters of the bridegroom, wore pink taffeta with matching headresses.

Gayle Klinger, daughter of S. 2-c. and Mrs. Elwood Klinger, and Judy Ann Klinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling C. Klinger, were flower-girls, the former wearing pink and the latter aqua taffeta dresses. They carried Colonial bouquets of roses.

John Adams was his brother's best man and Arthur Adams, Franklin Gaugler and John Bartik were ushers.

Mrs. Verna Grube played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Julia Stine who sang, "I Love You Truly" "O Promise Me," and "At Dawning."

A reception followed in St. John's Windish Hall.

The bride is a graduate of Liberty High School. The bridegroom attended Broughal High School and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company before entering the service. He is now stationed at Fort Bliss, Tex. The bride will reside with her parents.
