

Ray, Julius F.

MADE STAFF SERGEANT AT PUERTO RICAN BASE

San Juan, Puerto Rico, Oct. 19. (Special to the Globe-Times)—Fighter Command headquarters here announced today the recent promotion of Julius F. Ray, Bethlehem, Pa., to the rank of staff sergeant in the Army Air Forces.

On January 17, 1940, he volunteered for service in the armed forces. Before his enlistment he was a radio repairman. His favorite sports are baseball and basketball and he used to play with Bethlehem High School from where he graduated.

Staff Sergeant Ray, who is now stationed at an unnamed base somewhere in the Caribbean, is the son of Paul Ray, 614 Pierce Street, Bethlehem, Pa. Oct. 19 '42
