

Smith, Charles H.

Navy Officer

OCT 2 1945

Charles H. Smith, former member of the Globe-Times advertising staff, was advanced to the rank of Lieutenant Commander, USNR at his Naval base on Okinawa.

Lt. Comdr. Smith, whose parents reside in Ardmore, Pa., left the Globe-Times September 23, 1940. After completing his training in the States, he was assigned to the USS Dixie which was sunk in enemy waters during the Pacific campaign. At present he is the commanding officer of the USS Knight and is in charge of 200 men, 16 officers and $10,000,000 Navy equipment. The commander's wife resides in Evanston, Ill.

October 2, 1945