Katherine Pfeiffer Becomes Bride Of Sgt. Groeger

JAN 27 1945

Miss Katherine Elizabeth Pfeiffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pfeiffer, 817 Vernon Street, became the bride of T/Sgt. Lawrence Groeger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Groeger, 910 Hess Street, at a nuptial mass this morning in the Holy Ghost Church. The Rev. Reginald S. Billinger performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of ivory satin, with a full length veil of illusion falling from a cluster of orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book with a white orchid marker with streamers of orange blossoms.

Mrs. Ambrose Meckler, Philadelphia, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor and wore a gown of pink lace and carried an arm bouquet of white Winter flowers. Mrs. Samuel Ritter, Trenton, N. J., sister of the bride, maid of honor, wore a gown of blue lace and carried a bouquet similar to that of the matron of honor.

Ambrose Meckler, Philadelphia, was the best man and John Pfeiffer, Hellertown, and Charles Zurich, Bethlehem, served as ushers.

The church altar was decorated with mixed flowers and palms. Francis Mies presided at the organ and members of the Holy Ghost choir sang.

The bride was graduated from Hellertown High School and is a member of the Catholic Youth Organization.

The bridegroom attended Bethlehem Technical High School and has just returned from 35 months duty overseas in the Southwest Pacific. He was formerly employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.
