

Roberts, Frederick C.

MAY BE HOME FOR HOLIDAY—
Lieutenant Frederick C. Roberts (above) son of Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Roberts, of Easton, is in this country and is expected home within a day or two. Lieutenant Roberts was wounded in the Philippines area on December 8, 1941 and has received the Purple Heart decoration award from Lieut.-Gen. George C. Kennedy, commander of the Allied Air Forces in the Southwest Pacific. Lieut. Roberts intended to be home for Thanksgiving dinner, but was delayed.
