

Feltault, Robert
Fred

Returns To Texas 1944

Cpl. Robert Feltault has returned to Abilene, Texas, after spending a ten-day Christmas furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Feltault, 1716 Elm Street. Cpl. Feltault is a weather observer at the Abilene weather base station.

His brother, Fred who is a radio man serving on a destroyer in the Mediterranean spent his Christmas Eve in Algiers which he termed the New York of the Mediterranean. The latter has seen plenty of action and writes some very interesting letters of his experiences in the Mediterranean area.

January 7, 1944