

WIKTOR, John

John Wiktor Completes Basic Navy Training

John Wiktor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wiktor, 724 Lynn Avenue, Bethlehem, is home on a seven-day furlough after completing his basic Navy training at Sampson, N. Y.

The young seaman trainee celebrated his nineteenth birthday anniversary last month. He enlisted in the Navy April 3 this year. Before his enlistment he was employed by the local Bethlehem Steel Company plant. He was also a Bethlehem Technical High School student during the time of his employment and would have graduated from the school with this year's class June 15.

He was a member of the Windish Social Club here. He is a member of the St. Stanislaus Polish Church congregation. The young man was known to his friends as "Lefty." He played baseball with the Lynn Juniors nine, a pickup baseball team in his neighborhood.

Jun. 4, 1943