

Hartigan, Margaret + Theresa

A Surprise Farewell Party for "WAVE"-to-Be

APR 3 1943

Thursday evening an April Fool party was held for Miss Margaret Theresa Hartigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Hartigan, of 430 Pawnee st. Miss Hartigan was invited out for bridge and upon arrival discovered all her office associates of Bethlehem Steel Co.'s Transcribing Bureau also present at the home of Miss Anne L. Wargyas, of Green Acres, Hellertown. Original plans were to proceed to the home of Mrs. Floyd Ruch for bridge but Miss Hartigan was fooled.

A pleasant evening was spent dancing, playing games and the husband of one of the guests took flash pictures of various groups in motion and of the guest of honor.

Numerous original posters depicting naval life decorated tables with navy and white streamers as a backdrop. Many gifts were given Miss Hartigan.

Miss Hartigan has left the employ of Bethlehem Steel Co. as of April 2 and is scheduled to leave Bethlehem for Cedar Rapids, Iowa, April 7. She is a graduate of Bethlehem Catholic High and a member of the Holy Infancy Catholic Church. She is active in many clubs.

The following girls attended: Jean Sabatino, Dorothy M. Creitz, Olga Nemeth, Helen Kovacs, Rose Scott, Frances Zavis, Julia Fahy, Bernie McGovern, Beatrice Schuster, Mabel Stirk, Helen Oravec, Sybil Deining-er, Edna Birkel, Virginia Bankhart, Lorrain Minnich, Virginia Judd, Effie Coleman, Catherine Bingel, Margaret Althouse, Doris Price, Margaret M. Ruch, Kay Cunningham, Marie Weidinger, Mary Agnes Scanlon, Jimmy Herman, Margaret Ashman, Charlotte Fink, Helen Fox, Anne L. Wargyas, Mary and Madeline Hartigan, sisters of the guest of honor, and Margaret Hartigan.

April 3, 1943