

Candidate Reynolds campaign financial disclosure

The Bethlehem Gadfly Candidates for election, Election May 10, 2021

 Latest in a series of posts on candidates for election

Gadfly sees the Reynolds financial report as of the Friday May 7 deadline is now in.

Did you look at the others this morning?

It's almost a good thing that the Reynolds was late.

Now you can focus on it.

After all, it's the one that's received the most pre-election buzz.

You'll need the focus time.

It's a big report: looks like $68,000 in new contributions, absolutely dwarfing everybody else.

Other things Gadfly noted in a quick review:

- $1,000 from Petrucci contractor/developer returned immediately
- several large Union contributions
- payment of $8500 for voter data
- contributions to the Council campaigns of Wilhelm, Kwiatek, and Crampsie Smith
- payment of $13,000 for direct mail design

What did you see in this Reynolds disclosure or the others?
