

KOCH, James S.

Army Officers Commissioned

JAMES S. KOCH

ROBERT M. FULLER

The two local men pictured above were commissioned Second Lieutenants in the Army of the United States April 24, upon successful completion of the Officer Candidate Course at the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Ga.

Lieut. Robert M. Fuller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fuller, 1627 West Market Street. The new officer was inducted May 21, 1943, in the 742nd Light Tank battalion before going to officer's school four months ago. He held the rank of Pfc. before he was commissioned. He is a graduate of Blair Academy and Lehigh University.

Lieut. James S. Koch is the son of Robert J. Koch, 1040 Third Avenue, Hellertown. He was inducted July 11, 1944, and served with the 63rd Training Battalion at Camp Wolters, Texas, before going to school. He held the rank of Pvt. before he was commissioned. Lieut. Koch is a graduate of Hellertown High School.

May 5, 1945