

Goth, Edward A.

Made A Top-Kick

AN EIGHTH AAF FIGHTER STATION, England—Edward A. Goth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Goth, 623 Fourth Avenue, Bethlehem, Pa., has been promoted from technical sergeant to first sergeant.

Sgt. Goth, a former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, is now the highest ranking non-commissioned officer in his ordnance company, which is stationed at this Mustang fighter base.

The Bethlehem soldier is responsible for all administrative work carried on by his squadron. He has served with the AAF since May, 1941, and has been stationed in England for the past 22 months.
