

Wolfe, Paul R.

Marine Advances

Pfc. Paul R. Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wolfe, 17 West Morton Street, recently received his first stripe. Station at Yokosuka, 10 miles from Japan, Wolfe is a drummer in a band which plays German and English music for prisoners of war and officers' clubs.

Pfc. Wolfe enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps, June 24, 1944, and after going overseas in April, 1945, was stationed at Naha, Okinawa, Guam and Japan. While at Liberty High School he was a member of the band.
