

ANN BONCIK ENGAGED TO FORMER "FLYING TIGER"

~~JAN 28 1943~~
Betrothed to Tech. Sgt. Stephen
Kustay, of Northampton R. D. 2.

Betrothal of Technical Sergeant Stephen Kustay, son of Mrs. Mary Molnar, Northampton R. D. 2, and Ann Boncik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boncik, 220 Almond Street, Catasaquua, was announced at a dinner party at the Boncik home recently.

Sergeant Kustay is a former member of the First American Volunteer Group under General Claire Chennault, better known as the "Flying Tigers." He attended Northampton High School and enlisted in the U. S. Army Air Force in 1937, serving two years in Panama.

He re-enlisted in 1941 and was assigned to Mitchel Field, L. I., from where he volunteered to fly with the American Volunteer Group. After a year of service in China he was honorably discharged in July, 1942. He returned to the United States by way of Africa and arrived in September, taking up residence at 1003 Howertown Road, Catasaquua.

Last November he re-enlisted in the U. S. Army Air Force and is now stationed with the 90th Fighter Squadron at LaGuardia Field, N. Y. Miss Boncik attended St. Lawrence Parochial School, Catasaquua, and was graduated from Whitehall High School in 1938.
