

Four Brothers in S Hrichak,

MICHAEL HRICHAK
Sergeant

JOHN HRICHAK
Seaman 2-C

Four Sons In Service

Mrs. Helen Hrichak, widow of the late John Hrichak, 75 Clearfield Street, Freemansburg, has four sons in the service. Three of them are on active duty overseas.

Sgt. Michael Hrichak entered the service March, 1943, and is stationed with the Paratroop and Glider Infantry in New Guinea.

Peter Hrichak Petty Officer Third Class, enlisted in the Seabees Sept. 1943 and is now stationed in the South Pacific.

Seaman Second Class John Hrichak entered the service March, 1944, and at present is on a destroyer on convoy duty.

Cpl. Charles Hrichak entered the service June, 1944 and is an instructor on the 75mm Howitzer at Fort Knox, Ky. He was a former Globe-Times carrier and employe of the Ed-Mar Hat Company. The other three boys were employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Michael
John
Peter
Charles

September 7, 1944