Two Bethlehem youths are among the Lafayette College members of the Army Enlisted Reserve Corps ordered to report at New Cumberland for induction into the armed forces on May 3.

They are Harold B. Farquhar, Jr., who was graduated last February, and Tod Saylor, who has completed his sophomore year. Saylor is a three-sports athlete at Lafayette, having been a member of the varsity football and basketball teams this year and now playing on the varsity baseball team.

Twenty-five members of the AERC have been ordered to report to New Cumberland on May 3, the majority having graduated last Tuesday. About sixty more are expected to receive an early call to report for duty.
