

Bellesfield, Daniel B.
Bellesfield, Ralph P.

Brothers in Service

DANIEL B. BELLESFIELD

Paratrooper Pvt. Ralph P. Bellesfield and Daniel B. Bellesfield Flj, 375 Chapel Avenue, Allentown, have birthdays the same month. Ralph, somewhere in the British Isles observed his 20th birthday March 4th. He is a member of the Airborne Infantry, received his basic training at Camp Lee, Virginia, and received his wings at Fort Benning, Georgia, in June 1943. His last furlough was in October and he left for overseas in December 1943. Before being inducted February 12, 1943, he was employed at the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Daniel, who enlisted June 14, 1943, received his boot training at Sampson, New York, and also his schooling at Sampson. Feb. 12, 1944, he was promoted to Firemen First Class. After having five days furlough, he will receive further schooling at a Navy Yard in New York. He will observe his 18th birthday on March 21. Before enlisting he was employed by Brown-Borhek Company, this city.

Jan 13, 1944