First Lieutenant Gerald L. Meyers who completed 38 missions as a navigator aboard one of Uncle Sam's bombers in the European theatre of operations, is spending a 21-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Meyers, Bank Street, Nazareth.

Lieut. Meyers, a former employe of the Nazareth Hardware Store, South Main Street, Nazareth, took his basic training at San Antonio, Corsicana, Ellington Field and Hondo, Texas, and Clovis and Alamo, New Mexico, prior to being sent overseas in December, 1943.

He was stationed for some time in North Africa and Italy and then transferred to England where he completed his missions over continental European countries, having been assigned to a B-24.

On May 22, 1943, he was married to the former Ruth Lemley, of Wichita Falls, Texas, at the Hondo Field by Chaplain James E. Southerland. Mrs. Meyers arrived this week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Meyers, to join her husband in his furlough.

Upon completion of his furlough, Lieut. Meyers will report to Miami Beach, Fla., where he will be stationed for several weeks in an air force redistribution center. Mrs. Meyers will accompany him and remain there for several weeks.
