

Unger, Herman

Pfc. Herman Unger,
Nazareth R. D. 1,
Gets Infantry Award

NOV 16 1944

At a ceremony at Valley Forge General Hospital, Phoenixville, Pa., Pfc. Herman Unger, R. D. 1, Nazareth, was awarded the Combat Infantryman's Badge for exemplary conduct in action against the enemy in the European theater. The award was presented by Col. Henry Beeuwkes, MC., commanding officer, Valley Forge General Hospital. Major Paul C. Larnce, post adjutant, read the citations.

Pfc. Unger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Unger, Nazareth R. D. 1. Before entering the service he was employed by his father, who is a farmer. He is twenty-four years of age.

Pfc. Unger has a brother, John Unger, serving with the U. S. Navy.

November 16, 1944