

Erdosy, Alek J.

Headed For Action

Coast Guardsman Alek L. Erdosy, electrician's mate third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Erdosy, of 1911 Main Street, Northampton, Pa., stands his watch aboard the Coast Guard-manned LST upon which he is stationed. Bound for the Pacific and invasion duty, Erdosy's ship carried men and supplies to American outposts and assault points. He is a graduate of State Teachers College and enlisted in the Coast Guard over two and a half years ago. He is entitled to wear the American theatre of war campaign ribbon.

January 5, 1945