

Falatek, John G.

Son Writes Mother
He Is In Germany

Mrs. Agnes Falatek, 418 Atlantic Street, received a letter from her son, Pfc. John G. Falatek, stating he is with the First Army in Germany.

Inducted March 18, 1942, he received his basic training at Fort Meade, Md., and in October, 1942, he was shipped overseas to England. He took part in the D-Day invasion of France.

OCT 30 1944
A former Globe-Times carrier, he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company prior to his induction.

October 30, 1944